FRIDAY, July 15. In its general characteristics the stock market isplayed little change. The decline in prices for the day, averaging nearly 1 per cent., is at-tributable largely to the strictly professional character of the market, which left the list in shape for important declines as soon as the traders brought pressure to bear. There was little effort at support in any direction, though the bear sales which put down the average of prices were comparatively light. The traders were prepared this morning to celebrate the fall of Santiago with a rise in prices, and London sent higher quotations with orders to buy about 8,000 shares of the leading international issues. It was quickly discovered, however, that much long stock was coming out from holders who had bought in anticipation of supersidents. had bought in anticipation of success at Santi-age and the early ending of hostilities. The traders at once threw over their stocks and for the rest of the day worked for moderate profits on the short side. The close was a shade above the lowest figures of the day, and thus one of the most remarkable successes of mod-ern warfare was without material speculative The news of the session was unimporfanti. Peace rumors constantly circulated wer act confirmed, and the reported plans of a leadd by the gentleman in question. As bear houses, it may be well to remember that a et in a position, owing to their bids for the new Government bonds, which prohibit them from engaging in new speculative opera-tions. The allotment of the new loan will undly release much money which will seek new channels of activity. When viewed in this light the further decline in business in the rail-good bond market is not significant. The Street is prepared for a large decrease in bank re-perves this week as the result of the Treasury's collection of checks given in payment for the new loan by small bidders.

The decline in the list was very well dis tributed. Grangers yielded in the face of good erop reports, though on moderate sales. A of these to the lowest figures of the week There was talk of the poor condition of the in dustry, and the bears made much of the organ line to tidewater, of which they heard to-day the asme shape at present as when its officers Serenton on June 17. A break in Standard Oil in the outside market had some effect in the board. A six $\pi$ cent. drep in Metropolitan Street Ballway was instruthat in unsettling most of the specialties The stock was sold on the proposed increase of the capital from $30,000,000 to $45,000,000, whereas an increase to $40,000,000 had been expected. The extra $5,000,000 goes into the pany, issued to-day, left some room to question whether it had fully earned its dividend on the increased stock in the last fiscal year, but the agers have strong hopes for the future.

The local movement of money this week is described by the New York News Bureau as follows: "Several large packages of money have been sent to New York this week by banks in the interior, and it is, therefore, calculated that our institutions have gained at least $2,500,000 from the country. Under ordinary conditions this would be an important movement at a time of year when the interior banks are preparing for the new crops, but just at present the operations at the Treasury in connection with the payments for new bonds are the paramount factor. The banks have lost $10,000,000 to the Treasury. The New York SubTreasury's regular daily reports indicate for the full week as follows: Total receipts, $30,500,000, including $200,000 from other offices of the Treasury Department: total payments, $24,600,000, including $4,300,000 to other Treasury offices."

Cotton was intensely dull to-day and somewhat easier, but the fluctuations were few and confined within an extremely narrow range. A reaction in Liverpool after a higheropening and generally favorable crop prespects induced some local selling and proces declined. New Orleans sold here. The decline, however, was very slight, for there was no decline, however, was very slight, for there was no declined pressure to sell. Rain was reported at points in Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisians and Texses, and though the precipitation was light the fact that the frequent rains are interfering with the cultivation of the plant tended to check selling on anything approaching a large scale. Moreover, the signal service predicted showers within the next thirty-six hours in the castern portion of North Carolina, northern South Carolina and Georgia, castern Arkamas, Mississippi, Louisians, and eastern fexas. Liverpool bought August here and some local shorts covered. The cheapmess of the price, too, reatricts beariah operations. Bull the faciling to-day was easier owing to the generally favorable indications at the moment for another large crop. Mobile, Als., July 12.— Nothing specially new about the cotton crop.
